(1) Listed in SDGW as "John William Readman", though in the CWG register is "James William Readman".

(2) There are TWO "Ripley names from Middlesbrough in the SDGW / CWG, - "Charles Leonard Ripley" and "William Ripley". Thus, "William Leonard Ripley" could possibly be a "typo".

(3) Listed by SDGW as "Edwin Rooney" (but CGW = "E Rooney").

(4) There was a "Robert Richardson", formerly in Yorks Regtm from Middlesbrough.

(1) There is an "A A Thomas" name in the CWGC register / SDGW that could be this man.

(2) There are NO "W Ian" or "W Isaac" or even "W I" Thompson names in either the CWG or SDGW. There IS a "William Thompson" from Middlesbrough, who was in the Yorkshire Regiment.

(3) The name "John Thomas Thursfield" occurs on the family memorial headstone, but both CWGC and SDGW refer to him as "Thomas Thursfield"

(4) This appears to be a case of three names covering for one man, - listed as "John William Traynor" in the CWG, but as "John William Trainer" in the SDWG.

(5) Name listed as "Daniel Trewich" on the Middlesbrough War Memorial, but is, in fact, "Daniel Trewick".

(6) This may be a "typo" on the Middlesbrough War Memorial. There is no "Edward Turley" in CWG or SDGW, but there IS an "Edward Turner" from Middlesbrough, who was in the Yorkshire Regiment.

(7) Shown as "H Tuthill" in the CWGC register and "H Tutill" in SDGW, but doesn't appear to have a connection with Middlesbrough.

(8) Two "Leonard Thompson" names from Middlesbrough.

(1) Shown as "T H Wains" on Middlesbrough War Memorial, but is "Tom Herbert Waines" in CWG and SDGW.

(2) Although there was a "John William Waller" of the Gloucester Regiment who was born in Middlesbrough and enlisted in Reading, and whose parents came from Middlesbrough, there was also a "John William Walker" of the Yorkshire Regiment who was born, enlisted, and lived in Middlesbrough. This latter soldier, therefore, does not appear to be listed on the Memorial, but his details have been recorded on the page listing the men of the Yorkshire Regiment.

Names on Cenotaph – Linthorpe Road, Middlesbrough

(3) There does not appear to be a "James B Westwood" in either the CWG or SDGW. However, there is a "James Vincent Westwood" from Middlesbrough. Similarly, the only listed James William Westwood names don't come from this area, though John William Westwood (of the Yorkshire Regiment) came from Thornaby, - and isn't listed on that memorial.

(4) Proper name is "Alexander James Wilson", not "James Alexander Wilson".

(5) Correct name is "Vincent Wajnis".

(6) Two possible "T Walker" names.
